

Living Streets Aotearoa e-bulletin Feb 2013

What is your Executive committee up to?

We are planning a meeting in Wellington on April 6 where we will go through the Street Audit process and chat about our campaigns. If you are in Wellington on that day please come along to Friends Centre 8 Moncrieff st Mt Victoria. Here is what each of us are doing in our cities

Andy Smith	Concensus Building Group to find a way to raise revenue for the Auckland Plans transport programme which is short $1.2billion over the 20 years. Ponsonby Road Master Planing group. Dominion Road alternative Cycle route group.
Rhys Taylor	Greening the Rubble project in Christchurch is thriving in its work of making new but temporary public parks and gardens. It will soon be transferred to local management by Greening the Rubble trust, of which LSA Exec member Meg Christie is a trustee. See www.greeningtherubble.org.nz Project Coordinator and LSA member Rhys Taylor will be leaving that contract role in mid-winter with recruitment soon of a successor. Sites supervisor Jonathan Hall continues. The project has earned excellent public recognition of its work , including a Royal Visit, international TV coverage, nine sites being featured in a book on the city's transitional projects, a Community Board Service Award and a City Earthquake response 'hero' Civic Award.
